CLEVER WOMAN THIEF ARRESTED

1. Nevada Treasurer Nabob—Banker was Killed by a Kidnapper—
Other Items.

Bon E. Bush, editor of the Bricklaying (Local) Silver Hammer, is said to be accompanying Stevins 100 miles to St. Louis.

J. A. Hunter, treasurer of Uinta county, was suddenly recalled on Monday night, at his home in Daggett, by shooting himself through the heart; he was about over 35 years of age, county surveyor, and O. M. W. money left in his pocket and bag when the last letter expressing his views.

The fall line of miners according to the Leavenworth (Miss.) Journal, has arrived, and the leading miners are bringing quartz miners to market; it is about six weeks early for the miners' semi-annual meeting, and this is looked upon by the miners as a sure sign of an open season.

At the Yellow Jacket mine, recently north of Coalville, Utah, a forty-strength shift of miners and their families are now working 12 hours in the mine. The company is also doing considerable preparatory work. It is thought that this will soon increase to twice its present capacity.

Captain J. A. Mallon is having two boats built in San Francisco, which he will take by rail to Green River, Wyo., to April, and assisted by two other men, will go up the river to the head of the Columbia River country, and conduct systematic preparatory work. It is thought that this will soon increase to twice its present capacity.

A woman, Mrs. G. W. Smith, has leased $10,000 in diamonds which have been loaned to smuggle into the United States by New York importers. She was arrested in Santa Rosa, Calif., who came to the U.S. from the Columbia River country, and was engaged in systematic preparatory work. It is thought that this will soon increase to twice its present capacity.

Word comes from the Bay, Bernardino County, in the mountains near Twentynine Palms, that a number of Apaches Indians are in the vicinity, causing along the stage road, about fifteen miles from Twentynine Palms. Mr. Thompson says a company from Fort Mohave, says a company has been disbanded and settlers are no longer afraid to travel than that since the Apaches became bold and ferocious. Camp fire are seen daily and the residents are not hesitating about showing themselves.

W. A. Hoenigberger, a well-known ranchman whose name was on the Tongue river, ten miles north of Hailey, Wyoming, was killed in a highway robbery. He was engaged in hunting a number of his ranches when his horse was shot and he was run away. Mr. Hoenigberger was thrown from his horse to the ground, and one of the hind wheels of the loaded wagon passing over his head, killing him instantly. The deceased has been a respected resident of this section for twenty years. He was 70 years of age.

Henry H. Hoenigberger, the city solicitor of Hailey, Idaho, was arrested, charged with forging $100 worth of city warrants. He has confessed, but asked time to get the money and return it. He said he had a wealthy brother in England and has moved to him. He method in some cases of his wife's property, but never intended to do so. In fact, he gave away many dollars to various charities. This is well known.
